

How to Make It to the Corner Office

Excerpted from Confessions from the Corner Office

No one ever listened himself out of a job. –Calvin Coolidge
Lots of people have “talked” themselves out of jobs. –Scott and Pattye

It’s surprising how much you can accomplish if you don’t care who gets the credit.
–Abraham Lincoln
If people think their opinions don’t count, they quickly figure out it’s just easier not to think. We can think of no faster way to ruin a company –Scott and Pattye

Choose a job you love, and you will never have to work a day in your life. –Confucius
If you don’t love what you do, you can’t lead from the heart. –Scott and Pattye

They may forget what you said, but they will never forget how you made them feel.
–Carl W. Buechner
If you can’t move your audience, then move over. –Scott and Pattye

To lead people, walk beside them. –Lao-Tsu, Chinese philosopher
People more passionately follow personalities and character than they do positions.
–Scott and Pattye

For more information on Confessions from the Corner Office, or to speak with the authors, please contact Kristen Schremp at Kristen@kaspublicity.com or 703.928.5527