

Gregg Jackson Biography

Gregg Jackson is the national best-selling author of Conservative Comebacks to Liberal Lies, co-host of Pundit Review Radio heard on Boston's #1 talk station WRKO, a contributing editor to www.punditreview.com, and a 2005 and 2006 Weblog Award Finalist in the Best Media/Journalist Blog category.

Gregg will be a featured speaker at 2007 College Republican National Committee's (CRNC) National Convention, emceed the Republican Presidential Candidates panel at the 2007 Conservative Political Action Conference, gave the keynote address at the Missouri College Republican Convention (April 2007), and has appeared on Fox News.

Gregg has received praise from conservative luminaries such as Dr. Thomas Sowell, Professor Walter Williams, David Limbaugh, Phyllis Schlafly, and Michael Medved, among others, for his work in exposing the lies of the American left.

In addition to his writing, radio show, and personal blog, Jackson also speaks on college campuses nationwide.

He received his B.A. in Business and Economics from Colby College. He currently resides in the Boston area with his wife and son

To schedule an interview with Gregg Jackson, or for more information, please contact Kristen Schremp at Kristen@kaspublishity.com or at 703.928.5527