

Kathleen Antrim Biography

Kathleen Antrim is a political columnist for the San Francisco Examiner and the Washington DC Examiner newspapers as well as a contributing writer to NewsMax Magazine with 3.3 million+ online visitors monthly and 500,000 paid print magazine subscribers.

She is heard bi-weekly on ABC affiliate HotTalk 560 KSFO, “The Lee Rodgers and Melanie Morgan Show” with an audience of 250,000 + listeners and is also a political commentator heard in 400+ cities across the country on the nationally syndicated “Battle Line with Alan Nathan.”

A member of the National Press Club and The Authors Guild, Antrim authored Capital Offense and is researching the tentatively titled Actions Speak Louder Than Words. Antrim has won numerous awards for her writing including the Rupert Hughes Award, and is a writing instructor for the University of California, Santa Cruz.

In addition, Antrim is the Founder and Director of a multi-million dollar engineering and construction company - Antrim Engineering and Construction, Inc; founder of the Ruby Hill Giving Thanks Charity – which raised more than $1.8 million for children in need; and former president of the Livermore Valley Winegrowers Foundation which raised more than $1.5 million for charity.

To schedule an interview with Kathy Antrim, please contact Kristen Schremp at Kristen@kaspolicy.com or 703.928.5527